RE: Joint PAMD/PADC Request for Extension of Time Regarding Cooperative
Milk Procurement Cost Hearing Compromise Submission

Dear Chairman Barley and Members of the Board:

The Pennsylvania Association of Milk Dealers (PAMD) and Pennsylvania Association of Dairy Cooperatives (PADC) jointly move for an additional two-week extension of time to submit our joint compromise proposal for review and approval by the Milk Marketing Board. We are still working with interested parties to determine if they will object to the proposed compromise. Once we have received feedback from each interested party we will be able to formalize our compromise for filing. We estimate that we should be able to complete the process within the next two weeks. Accordingly, we request leave to file our compromise proposal on or before October 22, 2019.

We reached out to the interested parties regarding this motion for extension of time and so far the Farm Bureau, Food Merchants, the Department of Agriculture, and Dean Foods have indicated they do not object. Board Staff has indicated that they plan to weigh in on this request with the Board.

Thank you for your consideration of these requests.

Respectfully submitted,

BAKER, DONELSON, BEARMAN,
CALDWELL & BERKOWITZ, PC
